REMINDERS:

Personal filing is recommended. If filing by mail, application form must be notarized by Notar and authenticated by the Landgericht.

Please write legibly. Computerized or type-written forms are preferred. Please carefully review the entries on your form – details and signatures must match as seen on the passport and on the German Formule B; “middle name” refers to the maiden surname of the applicant’s mother and is only written on the form if reflected as such in the applicant’s passport.

All documents in German language must be accompanied by an official English translation. International versions of German civil registry documents are preferred as these do not require translation.

Original Philippine civil registry documents must be issued by the Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA) printed on security paper.

Please include this checklist sheet when submitting your application and indicate which documents you have submitted. Please make sure you provide your contact details to avoid delays - the reviewing officer reserves the right to conduct an interview or require additional documents from the applicants, as may be necessary.
